PREMIER GOLD MINES LIMITED and LONG LAKE #58 FIRST NATION are pleased to announce the signing of a joint memorandum of understanding "MOU". The official Signing Ceremony took place on Monday, November 10, 2014 at the Long Lake #58 First Nation Cultural Center. There were approximately 60 community members in attendance to take part in this special day. Official dignitaries included, His Honourable Michael Gravelle, Minister of Northern Development and Mines and Mayor Renald Beaulieu who both encouraged the continued collaboration between all parties. This MOU supports the ongoing efforts of LLFN and Premier in developing a joint process that will detail how the Parties will undertake to negotiate a formal agreement relating to the development of the Hardrock Project. LLFN is pleased with Premier's on-going conduct and the respect that they have shown while working within the consultation and accommodation protocol that LLFN has established for companies that work within their traditional territory. Chief Allen Towegishig emphasized that "this is the next step in our relationship with Premier Gold and we will continue to work cooperatively with them for the benefit of both Parties." "It is through a spirit of collaboration and cooperation that Premier and LLFN have advanced to this stage in their relationship. We look forward to concluding a definitive agreement that will further solidify this relationship and will formalize the manner in which LLFN will participate in the continued advancement of the Hardrock Mine project" said Premier President and CEO Ewan Downie. When industry, community and government collaborate it ensures project support. Premier recognizes this and is therefore committed to engaging with local communities and all levels of government to establish the close working relationships that will lead to development project success. For further information, please feel free to visit www.premiergoldmines.com

ROBBERY IN LONGLAC

(LONGLAC, ON) – On November 4, 2014 at approximately 5:50pm the Greenstone Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) received a report of an armed robbery at the Rexall Pharmacy in Longlac. It was reported that a male suspect entered the pharmacy and demanded prescription drugs from the staff while displaying a firearm. The suspect then fled with a small amount of medication and departed the scene in a vehicle with another male. It was later learned that the firearm in question was an imitation pistol. As a result of the investigation two males have been arrested and taken into custody: 24-year old Ryan PRESLEY and 70-year-old James PRESLEY, both of Cobalt, Ontario. They have both been charged with the following offences contrary to the Criminal Code:

- Robbery
- Use of an imitation firearm while committing an offence
- Possession of a weapon for a purpose dangerous to the public

The accused are being held in police custody pending an appearance by video to the Thunder Bay Ontario Court of Justice on November 5, 2014. As this investigation is still ongoing, police are asking anyone with information concerning these offences to contact the OPP Provincial Communications Centre at 1-888-310-1122. If you have information to provide, but wish to remain anonymous, you can also call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS).
